

Adventist ACE Course Enrollment Form

Requirements:

To be eligible to enroll in college classes students will:

1. be an academy or high school junior with a 3.5 GPA or an academy or high school senior with a 3.0 GPA.
2. have the approval of their parents (or guardians), principal, and/or guidance counselor.
3. provide an official high school transcript with the course enrollment form.

Regulations and Fees:

1. Adventist ACE students are subject to all of the college/university's policies and procedures governing academic work and tuition, must purchase their own textbooks, and will be expected to function as a regular member of college classes.
2. College courses may be subject to specific prerequisites noted in the catalogue descriptions, including appropriate assessment test scores.
3. Earned college credit may not be used to fulfill the credit requirements for the high school diploma without the expressed permission of the parent(s), counselor, principal, and superintendent. College credit will be available by transcript on request should the student wish to transfer the hours earned to another accredited institution.
